

1 legislature would have no control over the board. The 2 sole question as to the power of the legislature is whether 3 the legislature has the power to decide that the head of 4 a principal department is or is not a single executive, or 5 is or is not a board.

6 There is no issue here as to whether the legis-
7 lature has power to change the composition of the board.

8 Delegate Marion.

9 DELEGATE MARION: Mr. Chairman, it seems to me
10 we have gotten perhaps befogged or becalmed in a sea of 11 procedure and I find myself at any rate in a situation of 12 believing I understand, at least sufficiently for my own
13 purposes, where we are procedurally, but wishing to hear
14 something from those who know more than I whose exposure
15 to education is in the classroom and not from the adminis-16 trative end, why there should be a special exception for 17 education, if there should be one, and whether there should 18 be special exceptions for other boards with respect to 19 departments other than education, if there should be, and 20 I would appeal to those more knowledgeable than I to 21 address themselves, if we possibly can, to some of the
